

2025-2026Innovative Course Application InstructionsRenewal

- x The Texas school district/charter school or other organization seeking approval for renewal of an innovative course must complete the innovative course application for course renewals.
- x The renewalinnovative course application be completed prior to submission Applications deemed incomplete or received after the due date will not be considered.
- x The TEA will review the applications in the order received.
- x Applications that duplicate the content of a Texas Essential Knowledge and Skills (TESS) course or can reasonably be taught within an existing TESSed course will not be approved.

- x Submit all included recommended resourowish the application to make them available for State Board of Education (SBOE) reviewest access to any online course and learning management system content must be provided. If any resources are required for the course, please include the cost.
 - x Access to electronic materils

Directions for electronic access of recommended resources, including credentials, must be emailed with the application submission by Friday, September 13, 2024.

x Digital materials (Soft copy)

Please send digital copies of recommended resources Innovative.Courses@tea.texas.gov by Friday, September 13, 2024.

x Print materials (Hard copy)

For materials that exist in hard copy, please use the following address for submission. Please ensure any shipmts can be received by TEA no later than Friday, September 13, 2024. Please also alert TEA if you have shipped any materials and the shipping method used so that the mailroom can be properly notified.

Texas Education Agency c/o Weston Scholten,-321JWBT William B. Travis Building 1701 N. Congress Avenue

Please visit the Innovative Courses vergefor additional information.