

Initial Disaster Declaration
  Subsequent Disaster Declarations

There are   in Gov. Greg Abbott's state disaster proclamation.

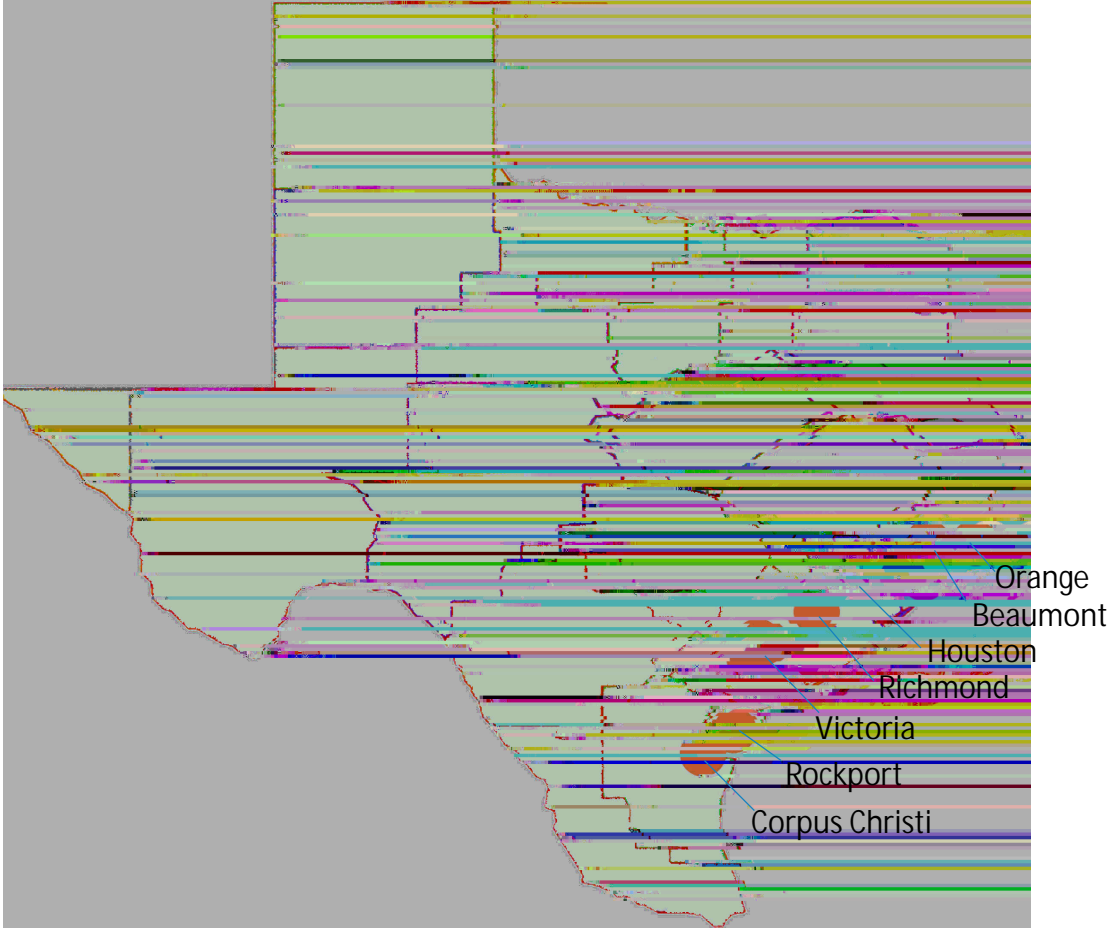

More than   attend public school within these counties,   of which were directly impacted by the storm.

  districts in the 60-county area have reopened with some facing longer timelines to resume operation

- To date, TEA has issued _____ on Harvey issues
- _____ from all statewide and federal governmental entities to accelerate recovery and rebuilding, including
- _____ with affected
- Superintendents, district staff, and ESC directors
- _____ to date: Beaumont, Orange, Corpus Christi, Rockport, Houston, Richmond, and Victoria (x2)

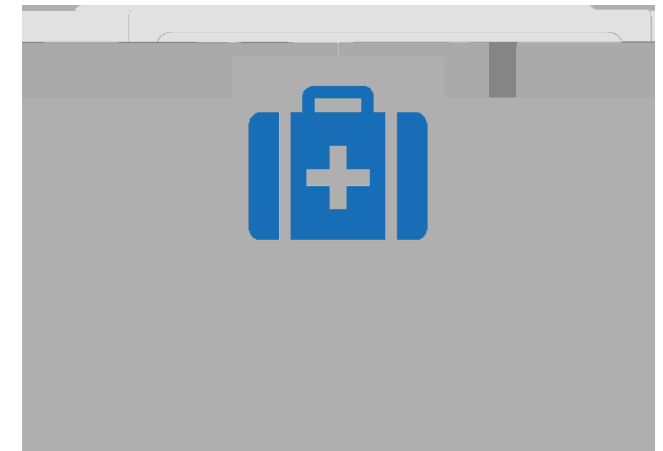

TEA has set up web pages for districts and parents to get more information and answers on how to proceed during this tragedy as well as a general donations page.

tea.texas.gov/HarveyParentResources

<http://tea.texas.gov/harveyresources>

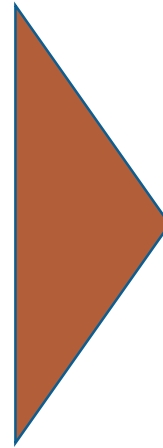

<http://tea.texas.gov/harveyhelp>

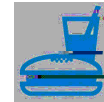

TEA advised that students who lack a fixed, regular, and adequate nighttime residence meet the definition of homeless

Faster access to support

Free and reduced-priced lunch

Transportation services

Automatic admission

Other supports

*Districts should assess a student's eligibility for McKinney-Vento on a case-by-case basis as the identification lasts the entire year.

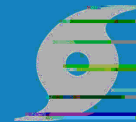

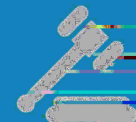

- ADA hold harmless adjustments
- Property value adjustments
- Funds available vs. appropriations vs. excess FSP
- Cash flow

- Chapter 41s abate recapture
- Chapter 42s require available funds
- Instructional facilities limitation

- Possible tax increases
- Funds available vs. appropriations

- Open meeting constraints
- Certification deadlines (SBEC)
- Transportation & busing