Eligible Genres	Passage Considerations
Passages may be from any of the following genres: Literary Fiction Drama Poetry Literary Nonfiction Non-literary Informational [§] Argumentative [§] Correspondence [§] Persuasive [§]	Passages are developed, and then reviewed and approved by Texas educators taking the following into consideration: Passages represent polished, high-quality writing and are considered exemplary samples of the eligible genres. Passages include reliable and accurate information. Passages are unbiased against or toward any group or culture. Passages are as engaging as possible for students. Passages are appropriate for the intended grade level, including readability indicators. Passages contain enough content to assess multiple student expectations.

[§]100% of the non-literary passages for these genres will cover topics from subject area TEKS up to and including grade 7. The majority of topics for these cross-curricular passages will come from social studies and science. The rest will come from fine arts, health, physical education, technology applications, and mathematics (personal financial literacy only).
